How do you fight a Combine in Half-Life 2?

This section of the larger Half-Life 2 walkthrough will cover your efforts to fight the Combine occupying the second base. You'll have to kill a large number of soldiers and use a crane to carry your car across the gap. If you are stuck on any part of this phase, then just look inside for a little help.

How do I get to Sandtraps in Half Life 2?

Once past, drive off the bank to the left of the bridge, under the old bridge section, up the ramp and into the tunnel. Around the corner, you'll get another loading screen, and enter the next chapter - Sandtraps. Welcome to Highway 17, the seventh level of Half Life 2.

How do you use a buggy in Half-Life 2?

The buggy drives with your direction keys: straight goes forward, back goes in reverse, left turns left, and right turns right. The mouse is used to look around and aim the tau cannon (basically the gauss gun from Half-Life 1). Fire it with the primary attack button and charge with the secondary.

How do you get through a roadblock in Chapter 17?

Take down this forcefield to move on. Pin a soldier to the billboard in chapter Highway 17. Follow the road along past the various abandoned cars until you reach another roadblock ahead of a large Combine outpost complete with a forcefield that will stop you passing through. Clear the roadblock first of all, but leave your car back here.
