Can you sell a used air compressor?

Aaron Equipment offers used compressors that are much less expensive than new, offer ease of payment, and a much faster delivery time. If you are looking to sell your used compressor submit a request online or contact Erik Eichert at 630-238-7480. Air compressors play a crucial role in industrial operations.

Can you recycle an air compressor tank?

While the metals of an air compressor, including the motor, can be sold for scrap, the tank itself can be recycled. However, you will need to call ahead to a scrap metal recycler to ensure they can accept it. Alternatively, there are DIY projects that can be done with an air compressor tank if you have time and want to reuse it.

How do you dispose of an air compressor?

To dispose of an air compressor, first separate its components. Most accessories like the pressure switch, regulator, drain tank valve, and feet/stand can go in your regular trash. The metals, including the motor, can be sold for scrap.

Can an air compressor be placed in a trash can?

No, an air compressor is too big to fit in the trash can. It typically consists of a motor, a tank, a pump, and some cords. To dispose of it, you'll need to separate every part possible for recycling.

What should you do before recycling an air compressor?

Before recycling an air compressor, release all pressure from the tank to prevent dangerous, accidental releases during the recycling process. Often, however, selling or donating old air compressors depends on their level of functionality.

What can you do with an old air compressor tank?

The tank itself will need to be taken to a scrap metal recycler as well, however, you will need to call ahead and make sure they can take it. There are also a couple of DIY projects that can be done with an air compressor tank if you have time and want to reuse it. The metals can be sold for scrap, this includes the motor.
