

Mr Louie drilling rig

In 1977-1978 Agri-Petco drilled six appraisal wells from a centrally located jackup rig called Mr. Louie. After the drilling, the jack-up was converted into a production unit and the field was put ...

High waves pour over the heliport (foreground) of the $5.5 million drilling barge "Mr. Louie"; after a storm struck it off the coast of Mexico. The tall columns towering above the barge are 150-foot ...

Mr. Louie is a former self-elevating drilling barge (jackup rig) converted into an oil platform. It was the first self-elevating drilling barge classed by the American Bureau of Shipping. As an oil ...

Dolphin Drilling rig to sling its hook and peel out of Nigeria on its way to Indian gig Following various trials and tribulations weathered throughout its stay in ...

Offshore Hydrocarbon later entered into a development farmout with Agri-Petco of USA and between 1977 to 1978 it drilled six appraisal wells from a centrally located jack-up rig ...

This collection contains information primarily pertaining to Roussel's new drilling barge, "Mr. Louie," including correspondence, notes, programs, newspaper clippings, receipts, ephemera, ...

The water well drilling rig is life saving in Tanzania and in Uganda. It may be also used as for preliminary deep soil gold prospecting including as part of the second section of our Matrix ...

Drilling rig equipment and machinery as it appears today on Mr. Charlie. From left to right, the substructure of the rig floor, a view of various fluid controls, the crane-hoist assembly and ...

Picture this... you're enjoying time with your fellow "hoomans" when -uh-oh! - a glass of red wine spills on the new white carpet. You grab a bottle of whatever from under the ...

In addition to patenting a special oil-drilling platform tool he called "The Roussel Jack," Roussel designed and constructed a new drilling barge that he christened "Mr. Louie" in 1959, which he ...

The rig got to Saltpond on Saturday, September 24, 2022 in the company of security officials and was about three hours away from the drilling ...

Mr Louie was designed by Emile Brinkmann between 1956 and 1958. The drilling barge was built by Universal Drilling Co. It was launched in 1958 and delivered in 1959.

Dec 1, 2022?? Mr. Louie was a self-elevating drilling barge. It was a jackup rig and was later converted into an oil platform. It operated at the Saltpond Oil Field, offshore Ghana. It is being ...

Mr louie drilling rig

This is "Mr. Louie," the $5.5 million oil drilling rig which was battered Tuesday by 35-mile-per-hour winds and 26-foot waves in the Gulf of Mexico about 100 miles south-southeast of Port Isabel, ...

In 1967, it became the first rig in the region to undergo repairs while still drilling - a testament to the ingenuity and adaptability required to operate in this new ...

Sea Gem was the first British jack-up oil rig and made the first British discovery of natural gas in September 1965, although the find was too small to be commercially profitable. It is also ...

Mr. Louie was a self-elevating drilling barge. It was a jackup rig and was later converted into an oil platform. It operated at the Saltpond Oil Field,...

Between 1977 and 1978, the jack-up rig (a kind of drilling vessel) called Mr. Louie, famous for having drilled the first offshore well in the legendary North Sea basin, was sailed ...

In 1964, it arrived in the North Sea, ready to make history. It wasn't just any arrival - Mr. Louie drilled the very first offshore well in the region, 30 miles off the ...

The collection also contains a model of Roussel's patented hydraulic jack along with a plaque recognizing his invention. Items separate from the manuscripts include a poster of a modern ...

Mr louie drilling rig

Web: <https://www.kwa-andries.co.za>