

Perenco drilling rigs

Perenco Rio del Rey, one of Perenco's Cameroon subsidiaries, is pleased to announce that it has commenced a five well development drilling campaign on the Kita Eden field, in the northern ...

At the beginning of 2021, Perenco, together with its Partners, Heritage and NGC, decided to launch an ambitious plan to modernize the ...

A Perenco subsidiary has drilled two wells this year offshore the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the first exploration discoveries in almost ...

Dixtone's jackup Banba has started drilling an appraisal well for Perenco Oil & Gas Gabon (POGG) close to the company's Hylia South West discovery.

Offshore staff LONDON -- Perenco UK has produced first gas from the C06 well, a near-field discovery in the Ravenspurn South area of the UK ...

In 1980 the Group founded the Techfor drilling company and built a fleet of drilling rigs, jack-ups, swamp barges and land rigs. In 1982, the Group acquired the French drilling company Cosifor.

From mid-2025, Perenco Congo will operate two to three rigs continuously for at least two years to ramp up oil production to 100,000 bpd.

Dixtone's jackup Banba has started drilling an appraisal well for Perenco Oil & Gas Gabon (POGG) close to the company's Hylia South West ...

For several years, Perenco has been engaged in an ambitious plan to reduce its emissions, valorize its gas resources and achieve energy self-sufficiency. With this in mind, Perenco ...

Offshore staff LONDON -- Perenco UK has produced first gas from the C06 well, a near-field discovery in the Ravenspurn South area of the UK southern North Sea. Late last ...

The company was established in 1975 by Hubert Perrodo as a marine services company based in Singapore. In 1980 the Group founded the Techfor drilling company and built a fleet of drilling ...

Perenco UK has signed a contract for a campaign of drilling operations using the Valaris 247 jack-up rig, the company announced on ...

The drilling campaign forms part of Perenco Rio del Rey's commitment following the 2023 signing of a twenty-year licence agreement with the Cameroon state and partner, Addax ...

Perenco drilling rigs

Petrodec has announced reactivation of a 40-year-old rig, which has been converted as its second decommissioning vessel for work in the UK ...

Wagenborg Foxdrill has secured a contract for offshore derrick removal in Congo with a turnkey contractor for Perenco's platform conversion.

Francis Kiepferle, Perenco's DRC General Manager, commented: "Perenco's offshore DRC subsidiary, MIOC, has had an active start to the year, which has included drilling the country's ...

Perenco and its partners announced the success of its 2022 drilling campaign in the Litanzi Field, offshore Congo-Brazzaville. The drilling rig, Dagda, was able to place two ...

Muanda International Oil Company ("MIOC"), Perenco's offshore DRC subsidiary, announces that it has drilled two exploration wells to date in 2024, making the first exploration discovery ...

Petrodec's Erda was reactivated and converted from a stacked drilling rig into a formidable and versatile multi-purpose decommissioning unit ...

PetroNor E& P encountered oil bearing sandstones at the Sud field, offshore Congo. Dixstone Drilling's Axima jackup drilled the well, with work on ...

Welcome to perenco Our group Founding spirit Overview History Values Strategy Producing countries QHSE Our commitments Our Sustainability Approach Climate People and Nature ...

Perenco has started drilling activities at an appraisal well offshore Gabon, using a jack-up rig from the Netherlands-headquartered Dixstone.

A Perenco subsidiary has drilled two wells this year offshore the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the first exploration discoveries in almost 30 years.

Perenco Rio del Rey, a Perenco Cameroon subsidiary, began a five-well development drilling campaign on the Kita Eden field, in the northern ...

Instead, Perenco buys old, usually shallow-water fields from the majors and it squeezes costs, extending field life and trying to raise production ...

Perenco Congo, part of the Perenco Group, has turned the power production switch on at its new mobile offshore production unit (MOPU) ...

Perenco drilling rigs

Further SNS gas production gains from drilling success at Perenco's Ravenspurn fields Perenco UK is pleased to announce the successful start-up of gas production from its C06 well, a near ...

The company is ramping up drilling activities in the Republic of Congo, with plans to increase output to 100,000 barrels per day (bpd). From mid-2025, Perenco will operate two ...

Nuada jack-up rig; Source: Dixstone Perenco's subsidiary drilled two exploration wells in 2024, making an oil discovery in the Moke-East well, ...

Independent oil company Perenco is ramping up its drilling activities in the Republic of Congo as part of its plan to boost oil production to ...

Web: <https://www.kwa-andries.co.za>