

What kind of oil should I add to my rock drill

What lubricants do drills use?

Traditional lubricants for drills, such as oil or grease, are specifically designed for high-speed applications like drilling and provide optimal lubrication for the drill bits and the drill itself.

What is Phillips 66 rock drill oil?

Phillips 66 Rock Drill Oil is an adhesive, extreme-pressure (EP) lubricant specially developed for the lubrication of air-powered tools such as rock drills, jackhammers, pavement breakers and drifters. It also is recommended for the lubrication of mining and industrial equipment operating in wet environments.

Which oil is best for drilling equipment?

Greases provide excellent lubrication and durability, making them ideal for heavy-duty drilling equipment. Multi-Purpose Penetrating Oils: Multi-purpose penetrating oils are designed to lubricate and protect drilling equipment by penetrating and loosening rust, corrosion, and stuck components.

What is Spectra Rock Drill Oil used for?

Spectra Rock Drill Oil is suitable for use in the following applications: Spectra Rock Drill Oil is a high performance lubricant for percussion-type air tools, which is formulated from highly refined mineral oils, extreme pressure, oiliness and tackiness additives, emulsifiers, rust and corrosion inhibitors, and anti-foam agents.

What is Black Diamond Rock Drill Oil?

Black Diamond Rock Drill Oil is a range of lubricants formulated with highly refined mineral oils and combination of additives, including extreme pressure, tackiness and antifoaming additives, rust and corrosion inhibitors, and emulsifiers.

What is a rock drill used for?

Rock drills used in quarrying. Percussion and rotary air-operated tools in other industrial uses. Good lubrication and cooling properties, along with excellent extreme pressure and antiwear performance, protect drill parts from wear, even under the severe conditions of continuous shock loading leading to longer component life.

This question comes up pretty often, so I made a video about it. But how to not make it as dull as dogshit? Slow Mo footage!!00:00 - Sweet slo-mo00:20 - intr...
